Cumberland Lookout (hiking) return to Reports list

Thu Jan 12, 2017

Leader: Juanita Wells

Co-Leader: Ken Rodonets

On a Thursday evening during quite a spell of minus double digit weather, nine members gathered at the Cumberland Rec Center to head off on the snow packed logging road up towards Allen Lake. With a beautiful full moon lighting the way the group made the turn at the Perservance Creek bridge and headed up the road on the Davis Lake Main through a slightly broken trail of fresh sparkly snow.

After about an hour and forty minutes the last of the steady uphill was conquered and the reward of a spectacular night time view of the lights of Cumberland, Comox and Courtenay came into view. After a short break to admire the view and snap a couple of photos the return trip and the last of the approximately 10 km journey was completed in a bit more than an hour.

An excellent winter's evening hike with great company!!

Even the snow creatures came out to play with us!
