Mount Becher (hiking) return to Reports list

Wed Jul 20, 2016

 Leader: Joe Lumsdon

 Co-Leader: Susan Osso

We were the Wednesday wanderers leaving early from Harmston 7:30am precisely, eight car poolers and two more roamers who met at the Forbidden parking lot, did our "Trailhead Meeting" list, by 8:05 am up we traipsed. Ski hill behind us a and bye bye view. We were at the level area and into the park within the hour. Conditions were ideal for our meandering ways-around this rock, roam by that puddle, skip this slippy spot; we stopped for a break, snack, water and a photo before rambling up to the old cabin location-Boston Lake lookout, through the dangereux rocky area of the gully to be ready for the final ascent in the open alpine zone.

We reached our destination by just after 11am and took a leisurely lunch for about 45 minutes until the wind picked up. Clouds blocked some of the view.

Coming down in casual way we trudged through the difficult areas of the descent, took in the views, stopped for health breaks, water etc. arriving at the vehicles by just after 2pm.

Although to wander, roam, ramble, traipse and meander are carefree of destination our destination was "To the Top" and stay focussed on the "Way Down". Thanks to the 10 Wednesday Wanderers...a great day for our physical, mental and spiritual health.

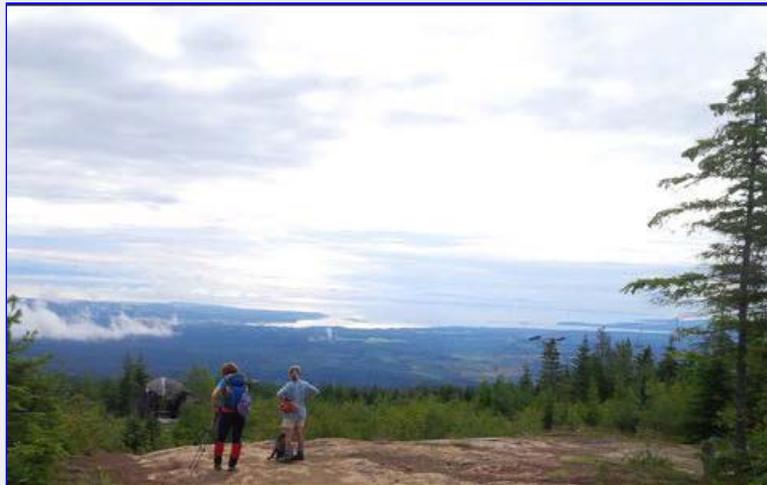

A recent addition to the Becher Peak is the Tibetan prayer flags...maybe John Lennon was thinking "Peace" back for another try.
