Trip Report

Mt Ginger Goodwin (hiking) return to Reports list

Sun Jul 03, 2011

Leader: Otto Winnig

Co-Leader:

We all met at the Court House and left at 8 am. After getting thru the guard along Comox Lake, we were off to the trail head. We were a group of 13 most of the way up, with the other group going all the way to the end of Lee Plateau. Near the junction of the split in the trail (Capes Lk to Left, Idiens Lk. to Right) the group separated in two. We had snow all the way to the summit of Mt. Ginger Goodwin. We enjoyed lunch and took in the view. A great spot to see the Comox Glacier and Idiens lake. It took about 3 and half hours to reach the summit. A climb of 1,000 meters in about 4.5 kms of steep trail. Coming back down, we were in contact with the other group. We were just ready to leave at the bottom, back at the trucks when the other group was coming back.
