Trip Report

Mount Ginger Goodwin (hiking) return to Reports list

Sun Jul 07, 2013

Leader: Otto Winnig

Co-Leader:

With everyone meeting at the Court House for either the Capes Lake Hike or the Mt. Ginger Goodwin Hike, signing the wavier forms, paying the T.W. $'s, carpooling we were all off heading around Comox Lake. After getting thru the gate, the road was dusty, so everyone was spaced out along the road. After stopping at the Cruickshank River Bridge to regroup, we waited for 5 mins. Then Tim took his truck back up the road to see what happened. One of our trucks got a flat tire. The Mt. Ginger Goodwin group was all together, so we carried on to the start of the trail.

We started around 9:30 am up the trail. This trail is steep for about 3 kms. As we climbed up, we could see the other group was at the trucks and starting out. After a couple of breaks, we were all together along the trail. The weather was a bit overcast which kept the heat down, which is a good thing, when you are climbing up a steep trail ! The sun came out in full force near the covered forest area, which we were all glad of.

After some Otto "bushwacking" we were at the top of Mt. Ginger Goodwin enjoying the 360 degree view and lunch. After some personal photo's and the group photo, we were heading back down, to soon it seemed. We took our time coming down and had lots of shade breaks. We were in no rush, as we were waiting for the other group to meet up with us.

While heading down, we heard lots of thunder overhead. We had a few drops of rain near the bottom but nothing serious. We drove back along the lake road, spaced apart to keep the dust down between trucks. We arrived back at the court house around 6 pm. All in all, it was another great day for hiking.
