Trip Report

Campbell River Camino (hiking) return to Reports list

Sun May 17, 2015

Leader: Denise Allard

Co-Leader: Don Kulak

At 10:15 a.m., eight of us started our tranquil Sunday morning walk in the Beaver Lodge Forest Lands under cloudy skies. We soon turned left at the East Simm's Creek trail which took us under Dogwood and directly to Rockland St. A short 20 minutes later, we stopped for a water break, while admiring the stunning view of the Passage and the Sea Walk below.

At a good steady pace, we then headed North to the city center and the pier where we had lunch, sharing a few legends and interesting facts along the way. Leaving the Discovery Mall, we zigzagged our way through the First Nations' Reserve, and finally arrived at the E.R.T. Road - we were quite happy to know that this was the last leg of our adventure! It was hot and sunny by then.

After a few "we're almost there..." from our leader, we arrived at our cars around 3:20 p.m. My 15kms had become 18kms ! according to Otto.

Thanks to you all for joining me. It was great fun !! (will add photos...)
