Trip Report

Oyster Ocean Outing (other) return to Reports list

Wed May 02, 2012

 Leader: William Wright

Co-Leader:

Fun trip, of a social nature, with a hearty lunch enjoyed at the local pub, north of the Oyster River.

Since this was a sedate stroll I was reined in (at least once) for my quick-march although I quickly brought it under control for fear of a mutiny - my mates, some armed with their photographic gear, quite liked the lighting of threatening skies and my slowed gait.

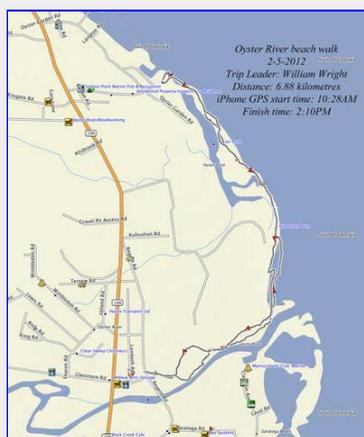

Great to have some assistance in the leadership department with Denise helping out, on our return leg and even with my constant observation, she did swell!

T'was nice to have a group refreshed with some newer faces and learn that some have skill sets aligned with the CDMC's recent entry in the Snow to Surf so, as captain, I found myself trolling for new blood and possibly, bearing fruit?

Also, it was nice to have Rosilyn along who, without her worthy assistance, the CDMC Mutineers would not have had an entry in the Snow to Surf, this year and a wonderful bonus to know that she'd be returning to our spirited team(s).

The weather held and although a short day, the nature of this walk was just right for those that participated.

Hey trip participants: bonus points for identifying the Greater White-fronted Geese :)
