Trip Report

Allen Lake Circle (hiking)
return to Reports list

Wed Aug 04, 2010

 Leader: Bucky Buchanan

Co-Leader:

It was a typical hot Aug day with a pall of smoke from the interior forest fires when six members and three guests got a early start on the Allen Lake hike. After a brief rest at Perserence Creek we started our 160 m climb thru an old clearcut. After a welcome rest stop at Sykes Bridge we followed a contour line to the south end of Allen Lake. The trail passed a steam donkey left over from the early days of logging. Dan said it was one the best preserved he had ever seen. Dropping down a gentle slope we arrived at Allen Lake we all except Bill had a refreshing swim in the tepid waters of Allen Lake followed by a much anticipated lunch in the shade of the forest that had escaped the clearcut. A leisurely walk returned us to the vehicles by 2 pm
