Trip Report

New Year'S Paddle (paddling)

return to Reports list

Thu Jan 01, 2015 Leader: Glenn Ord Co-Leader: Sheila Ord

The group of seven met at the Courtenay Marina, many clad in dry suits. We were careful to avoid slipping on the icy ramp and launched 5 kayaks and a canoe out onto the Puntledge River and then we paddled out to the estuary and into the bay under fine blue skies. We paddled out to Comox Spit and landed on the beach. Conditions were so good and the leader staved a potential mutiny (Tree Island?) and then we crossed over the Comox Bay. We followed the shoreline to the Royston Wrecks and then back to the launch site. We had paddled 13.5 km at a nice leisurely pace.

The day morphed into a pot luck dinner at Linda & Pipo's home and a scheduling of a future pool session to work on roll techniques. So, all in all, a nice day with new friends in a wonderful place that we call home and a terrific start to the new year.
