Mount Drabble (hiking)

Sun Jun 26, 2016

 Leader: Tim Penney

 Co-Leader: Karl Stevenson

This trip, that was postponed from last Wednesday due to poor weather, had a perfect sunny day for today. The temperature, up to about 22 degrees, was nicely ameliorated by a fairly steady cool breeze. It was actually quite chilly on the summit.

There were still some patches of snow on the trail, but a lot had gone since my last visit 2 weeks ago. Several of our group were able to do some good trail clipping on the way to the summit with others clearing the trail behind them.

Our lunch break at the summit, under blue skies with high clouds, gave us good views across to the other local mountains. We all appreciated the improved trail on the way back and, at one part of the trail, a short detour from our outward route.

Although Mount Drabble had been used as a main snowmobiling area during the winter we were glad to find only one or two beer cans had been left in the park along our trail. Quite a difference to other years when we carried out several dozen beer cans.

Good to see two new club members out today for their first trip with the CDMC.

Many thanks to the clippers and the clearers on this trip.
