Trip Report

Snowshoe Wander (snowshoeing) return to Reports list

Sat Feb 18, 2017

Leader: Juanita Wells

Co-Leader: Julianna Wells

After a short delay to retrieve forgotten snowshoes, our group headed out towards Lake Helen MacKenzie at 10:15. In just a short week the snow pack has consolidated to about half of what it was. After a short break at the lake the group continued across the lake on a bit of new snow which helped cushion the hardness of the packed frozen snow. After climbing up away from the lake for awhile a nice sunny open location was reached where it was decided that the group would stop for lunch. With many of the Canadian Jays joining us looking for a dropped tidbit, everyone enjoyed 45mins of the beautiful surroundings under completely blue skies and a very warm sun. After lunch the decision was made to turn back and head for Battleship Lake. Lots of people out and about, many conversations were had and a large group of scouts were observed pulling their sleds of gear to the islands on Battleship Lake to set up camp for the night. After an approximate 10km trip we arrived back at the vehicles at 4pm.
