Trip Report

Paradise Creek (snowshoeing) return to Reports list

Sun Feb 26, 2017

Leader: Juanita Wells

Co-Leader: Michele Hind

Not letting a fresh dump of about 7" on the streets of town get the best of us, the brave ones made the slow but steady journey to the 10km parking on the road to Mt Washington. Heading out on a fresh layer of snow at about 9:30am, our enthusiastic group made their way in the warm rays of sunshine first to the Ramparts Creek bridge and then up to the Paradise Creek falls. Even though the fresh snow had recovered most of the falls we all enjoyed the rush of the bits that were still showing. After some views of the nearby icicle wall, the group headed back down towards the turn at the Murex stopping part way back to enjoy a leisure lunch at a seat with a view. Heading back at a leisurely pace and about 8 .5 km later we arrived back at the vehicles just after 2. Many stories and thoughts were shared in what turned out to be a spectacular day in the sun and I thoroughly enjoyed the company of the day. Thank you everyone for coming along.
