Seasonal Potluck (event) return to Reports list

Sat Oct 25, 2014

Leader: Tim Penney

Co-Leader: Pam Munroe

Pam got the evening started by allowing club members who had been out on work parties during the year to have first go at the food trough (oops! table). They were shortly followed by the others based on a variety of age criteria. It all seemed to work out well, with plenty of main dishes for everyone to have full plates and even return for seconds.

Following the main course, and before starting in on desserts, we drew 5 numbers for the door prizes. This year, the door prizes were more quality than quantity. A big thank you here to both Richards from Valhalla Pure Outfitters and Alberni Outpost. A very nice Arcteryx Atom Light jacket was picked by Don K. with thanks to Valhalla Pure. Harold O. picked an elegant and functional looking Osprey Laptop Backpack with thanks to Alberni Outpost.

Other donations included 4 packs of Hot Chocolates and 4 gift cards from Alberni Outpost. From club members we had some dehydrated camping food, a book on avalanche preparedness and two snow cave prints from this year's trip to Century Sam Lake.

Door prizes were good, but so was the great selection of really healthy? desserts that were attacked with gusto. Following dessert time, the remainder of the door prizes were drawn for.

Next up was the presentation of 21 certificates to the trip leaders and co-leaders for their contribution to the club for the past year. Without trip leaders we wouldn't have much of a club. So, a big thank you to club members who led trips during the club year.

Following the certificate presentation, I ran my usual slide show with pictures from our club trips since March of this year. Ken R. also showed a selection of images from various trips where he was the leader.

As usual, a big thank you to all who provided the excellent food and, of course, to the kitchen helpers who took care of the dirty dishes and left the place looking spic n span.

The evening was all wrapped up by soon after 9:30 and a good time was had by all.

If you were attending this event and your name does not appear below, please log-in and add it to the list.
