Trip Report

Canyon View, Elk Falls, Oyster River Trails (hiking)
return to Reports list

Wed Sep 18, 2013

 Leader: Denise Allard

Co-Leader:

- - We were a happy group of eight members who left the trailhead on a beautiful, sunny day
- thank you Bev Kulak for being an awesome co-leader
- there were more ups and downs than anticipated
- we lost a few members (to pick mushrooms, etc) for short periods of time
- some of us enjoyed the great views for the first time
- lunch by the ocean at the Salmon Point pub was much appreciated and deserved
- because of time constraints, being too tired, or not wanting to face the threatening grey clouds, we decided to forego the last trail
- the mother and cub which I had seen on a previous hike were at the rendez-vous, meandering along the shore, allowing a few of us to admire their strong, healthy bodies and shiny coats. How fortunate we were!.
- a perfect day indeed!!!

Warning! Warning!
